STATE ELECTIONS.

Returns as Received Up to the Hour of Going to Press.

FLOWER ELECTED IN NEW YORK.

The State Will Probably Go Democratic by a Large Plurality—Boies Elected Governor of Iowa—Massachusetts and New Jersey Both Elect Democratic Governors—The Result of the Election in Other States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—The election in this state yesterday was for a complete state ticket. Four candidates were in the field for governor. They were J. Sloat Fassett, Republican; Roswell P. Flower, Democrat; Joseph W. Bruce, Prohibitionist, and Daniel DeLeon, Socialistic Labor party.

ROSSELL P. FLOWER.

For lieutenant governor the candidates were J. W. Vrooman, Republican, and William F. Sheehan, Democrat; for secretary of state, E. F. O'Connor, Republican, and Frank Rice, Democrat; for controller, Arthur C. Wade, Republican, and Frank Campbell, Democrat; for treasurer, Ira M. Hedges, Republican, and Elliott Danforth, Democrat, and for attorney general, W. A. Sutherland, Republican, and S. W. Rosendale, Democrat.

The election in this city yesterday was conducted in an orderly manner in most places. There were a few street fights and two serious shooting affrays which were the exceptions. Fred. Witte, a young Tammany worker, of 34 Madison street, was shot in the mouth by Simon Crane during an altercation. The wound is considered serious.

Tohn Pierce, of 1145 First avenue, and David J. Lahey, of 350 East Sixtieth street, had a political argument early in the morning. They quarreled and Lahey drew a pistol and shot Pierce in the thigh. Pierce's injuries are considered dangerous.

One thousand five hundred and thirty-three districts outside of New York and Kings county give Flower 168,130; Fassett, 181,420. The same in 1888 gave Hill 186,386; Miller, 230,862.

Eight hundred districts in New York city out of 897 give Flower, 129,834; Fassett, 77,705. Flower's plurality, 52,129. Brooklyn—400 districts out of 647 in Kings county give Flower, 55,895; Fassett, 45,111. Flower's plurality, 10,784.

The following assemblymen are elected from New York city: First district, P. H. Duffy, Tammany; Second, T. D. Sullivan, Tammany; Eighth, Philip Wissig, Tammany; Twelfth, Moses Dinkelspiel, Tammany.

The returns show that the new senate will stand 19 Republicans to 13 Democrats. The assembly 63 Republicans to 65 Democrats. On joint ballot the Republicans will have 82 votes to 78 Democrats, an increase of 3 Republicans.

Outside of New York City and Kings county 1319 election districts give Flower 143,856; Fassett, 155,846. Same in 1888 gave Hill 158,968 and Miller 199,276.

The latest returns indicate that the assembly will stand 64 to 64, and the senate 17 Republicans to 15 Democrats, a majority of 2 Republicans on joint ballot.

Fifteen hundred and thirty-three election districts outside of New York and Kings county give Flower 168,130; Fassett, 181,420. The same districts in 1888 gave Hill 186,386; Miller, 230,862.

The Second congressional district complete gives Chapin, Democrat, 5,975; Bristow, Republican, 4,596. Chapin's majority, 1,379.

The Herald says that the state legislature stands as follows: Senate—Republicans, 18; Democrats, 14. Assembly—Democrats, 59; Republicans, 69. Republicans' majority on joint ballot next year, 14. Last session the Democrats had a majority of 2 on joint ballot.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The Contest Between Only Two State Officials.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—The contest in this state was for auditor general and state treasurer. The Republican standard bearer is General D. M. Gregg, an officer in the regular army. His opponent for the auditor generalship is Robert W. Wright, a wealthy corporation lawyer.

Comparison in county estimates are made with the vote for state treasurer in 1889, when Boyer, Republican, had a plurality of 60,906 over Bigler, Democrat. Fulton county—Wright, Democrat, for auditor general, 257 plurality; a Democrat gain of 183; Tilden, Democrat, for state treasurer, 275 plurality. Philadelphia gave 25,000 majority for Gregg and Morrison.

At this hour the indications are that General David M. Gregg, Republican, for auditor general, has defeated Robert E. Wright, Democrat, by 35,000. For state treasurer, Morrison, Republican, has 82,000 majority over A. L. Tilden, Democrat.

Berks county, the home of General Gregg, and a Democratic stronghold, gave 5,200 for Wright.

Allegheny county, in which Captain Morrison resides, gave him 14,000 majority.

Mr. Wright carried his own county, Lehigh, by 2,500, whilst Tilden lost Erie, where he lives, by 800. The hotly contested judicial fights in Allegheny, Lancaster, Bedford, Dauphin and Lebanon counties served to bring out a large vote. As most of these counties are Republican the general effect is favorable to that party's state ticket, though the Democrats secured many votes for Wright and Luden by trading their local candidates.

City Treasurer of Philadelphia William Redwood Wright, Democrat, who was appointed by Governor Pattison to succeed the notorious John Bardsley, was defeated by George D. McCreary, Republican, by 20,000, and William G. Shilds, Republican, was elected register of wills of Philadelphia over Theodore F. Jenkins, Democrat, by 23,000.

Returns on state ticket in Allegheny county are coming in very slowly. The indications are that the Republican state ticket will have from 15,000 to 17,000 majority in Allegheny county.

Washington county, Pa., gives a Republican majority of 800.

Lawrence county gives 1,700 Republican majority.

Reading, Berks county, Pa., Gregg's home, gives him a Republican majority of 59, Berks county is Democratic by 4,500.

Cumberland county (Pa.) Democrat state ticket has 1,200 majority.

Wyoming county gives Gregg 100 plurality; Republican gain of 4.

Potter county gives Gregg 250 plurality; Morrison, Republican, 250 plurality.

Adams county gives Wright, Democrat, 400 plurality; Republican gain of 118. Tilden, Democrat, 400 plurality.

Lancaster county gives Gregg, Republican, 8,500 plurality; Morrison, Republican, 8,500.

This city with one ward missing gives Gregg 28,180 plurality.

Forty-two out of sixty-six counties in the state give Gregg 24,698 plurality, Morrison running about even.

Philadelphia city complete gives Gregg, 102,180; Wright, 73,625; McCreary, Republican for city treasurer, 20,995 majority.

DEMOCRATS CARRY NEW JERSEY.

The Election Resulted in the Election of a United States Senator.

TRENTON, Nov. 4.—Upon the result of the contest in this state yesterday depends the election of a successor to United States Senator Blodgett. There were several senators balloted for in the counties of Burlington, Cape May, Hunterdon, Hudson, Middlesex, Passaic, Sussex. Sixty assemblymen were voted for in accordance with the new district lines established by the last legislature.

The counties of Essex and Hudson each have one district more, and Burlington and Morris each lose a district.

The Democrats will have a majority in both branches of the legislature. At political headquarters of the Democrats in this city the claim is made that Democratic senators have been elected in Hudson, Hunterdon, Middlesex and Sussex counties. The Democrats also claim to have elected forty assemblymen in the state.

In the Second assembly district John D. Honce, Democrat, is elected over Alfred D. Vandoren, Republican, by a big majority. In the First district Reuben Strahn, Independent Republican, is elected over William Reid, Republican, and Dr. Humiyas, Democrat. Strahn was defeated in the convention and ran on an independent ticket. There was a bitter fight in the district, which is composed of the townships of Shrewsbury, Raritan, Holden and Middletown, owing to dissension in the Democrat ranks. W. Tabor Parker, Republican, carried the Third district by a small majority. Two Democrats and one Republican will therefore go to the house of assembly. If the fight between the Abbott and Blodgett factions of the Democracy had been dropped this year the straight Democratic ticket would have won in all three districts.

Coyle, Tohen and Zeller, all Democrats, are elected in the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh assembly districts respectively.

New Jersey complete gives the following results: Senate—Republicans, 5; Democrats, 16. Assembly—Republicans, 21; Democrats, 40. On joint ballot—Republicans, 26; Democrats, 56.

Forty-two out of sixty-two districts in New Jersey show a Republican gain of one.

According to returns up to 12:30 the Democrats elect each of the seven senators—a gain of three.

IN KANSAS.

A Light Vote Polling on Account of a Cold Drizzling Rain.

TOPEKA, Nov. 4.—It was raw and chilly all over Kansas yesterday and a drizzling rain fell, causing a lighter vote than would otherwise have been polled. Nine district judges were elected and in each of the 106 counties the following officials were chosen: Treasurer, clerk, sheriff, register of deeds, surveyor, coronator and one county commissioner. It will be difficult to tell whether the Alliance has fallen off or not even after the full returns are in from all the counties, unless the victory is a sweeping one.

Nine district judges and a number of local officers were voted for in this state yesterday. Interest lay in the effort that was made to break the strength of the Farmers' Alliance or People's party which swept this state a year ago.

Indications show that the People's party has made gains in the towns, but there has been a heavy falling off in the country precincts.

The result of this election will have great import for the Democratic party. If the People's party made large gains the Democrats will in the future be divided on the question of a fusion, but if the Republicans win the Democrats will hereafter have a straight ticket.

Reports from nearly all the eastern counties in Kansas give the election of the Republican ticket, showing large gains over last year.

IOWA.

The Temperance Question the Important Issue.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 4.—At the state election yesterday the voting was for governor, lieutenant governor, a judge of the supreme court, a superintendent of public instruction, a railroad commissioner, thirty-one senators and one hundred representatives. There were four tickets in the field—Republican, Democrat, Prohibition and People's. The temperance question entered largely into the campaign. Governor Horace Boies, the Democratic candidate for re-election, favored a modification of the present law, while H. C. Wheeler, the Republican candidate for governor, insisted that the law should remain and be enforced. The other gubernatorial candidates were A. G. Westfall, People's, and Isaac Gibson, Prohibition.

The candidates for lieutenant governor were Samuel H. Beston, the present Democratic incumbent, and George H. Van Houten, Republican. L. G. Kinne, Democrat, and Silas M. Weaver were candidates for judge of the supreme court.

Every indication points to the election of Boies and the entire Democratic ticket by a handsome majority. Dispatches received at the Democratic headquarters announce an increased vote all over the state, and slightly increased majorities for Boies.

Two hundred and two precincts give a net Democratic gain of 596. This includes Polk county, where the Democrats made large gains.

One hundred and forty-five precincts give Wheeler 10,970 and Boies 18,412. Same places in 1889 gave Hutchinson 17,018; Boies, 17,830. Net Republican gain, 884; 250 precincts show net Republicans of 112.

Three hundred and forty-three precincts give Wheeler 45,401; Boies, 46,853. Same precincts in 1889 gave Hutchinson 39,697; Boies, 41,237. Net Republican gain, 1,086.

The re-election of Governor Boies by the Democrats of Iowa is practically conceded on all hands. The Democratic central committee places his plurality at 10,000, and that of the state ticket at 2,000 less.

Chairman Mack, of the Republican committee, said that the reports so far received were satisfactory and he hoped later ones would favor the Republicans. At any rate he said the plurality would be small either way.

MASSACHUSETTS.

Five Tickets in the Field for a Complete State Ticket.

BOSTON, Nov. 4.—An entire state ticket was balloted for at the election in Massachusetts yesterday. The offices to be filled are those of governor, lieutenant governor, secretary, treasurer, auditor and attorney general. There were five tickets in the field—the Republican, Democrat, Prohibition, People's party and Socialistic Labor. The main fight centered on the gubernatorial vote and was between William E. Russell, the present Democratic incumbent, and Charles H. Allen, Republican. The other candidates for governor were, Charles E. Kimball, Prohibitionist; Henry Winn, People's party, and H. W. Robinson, Socialistic Labor.

W. E. RUSSELL.

The complete returns from Boston and other cities would show Democratic gains. This will elect Russell by from 3,000 to 5,000.

One hundred and ninety-one precincts out of 203 in Boston give Russell 34,448; Allen, 21,111. Russell's plurality, 13,257. This is within 111 of Russell's plurality last year in the whole city.

Two hundred towns give Allen 34,339; Russell, 26,224. Same towns last year gave Brackett 29,207; Russell, 28,389, net Republican gain of 2,208.

Complete returns from Boston and other cities which show Democratic gains will elect Russell by from 3,000 to 5,000.

Half the towns of the state outside of Boston give Allen 27,540, Russell 21,023. Same last year gave Brackett 23,316, Russell 18,337. Net gain of 1,653.

Governor Russell has sent the following message to Chairman Murphy at Troy, N. Y.: "Enormous vote, probably elected by 5,000 majority." Later returns confirmed this belief. The Journal and Advertiser, Republican, concede Russell's election by 3,000 majority.

MARYLAND.

A Lively Contest in the Bay State Over the Governorship.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 4.—The election in this state yesterday was for governor, controller, attorney general and clerk of the court of appeals. The campaign has been a lively one, with the main fight on the governorship. The candidates were Frank Brown, Democrat; William J. Van Naert, Republican, and Edward Higgins, Prohibition, for governor. The candidates for the other offices were M. D. Smith, Democrat, and John McDonald for controller, and John P. Poe, Democrat, and George M. Sharp, Republican, for attorney general.

Brown, for governor, and entire Democratic state ticket is elected by about 20,000. Senate—Democrats, 19; Republicans, 7. The house will be Democratic by not less than 30 majority.

Fifty-four of 198 election districts in Baltimore city give Latrobe, for mayor—sixth term—9,845; Warfield, 6,159. Latrobe and entire regular Democratic city ticket will have about 5,000 majority.

The Republicans claim the Third legislative district, Frederick county. Heaviest vote for years, Democratic gains; parts of both tickets elected.

Anne Arundel county—Entire Democratic ticket elected. Moss, for state senate, runs behind the ticket.

The counties of Howard, Wicomico, Montgomery, Cecil, Carroll and Prince Georges are solidly Democratic, the majorities ranging from 100 to 500.

Allegheny county gives about 500 Republican majority. Somerset and Queen Annes counties, Democratic small majorities.

Colorado.

DENVER, Nov. 4.—This is an off year in politics in this state. The only state offices to be filled at yesterday's election is the supreme court judgeship. Two candidates were running—Joseph C. Helm, Republican, and L. M. Goddard, Democrat.

Twelve precincts of Franklin county show a net Republican gain of 111. On this basis, a gain of 9 to a precinct, there will be a Republican gain of 800 in the county, bringing the heads of the ticket to a par. This county has been running Democratic from 600 to 800.

Full returns from the city of Denver show that the Republicans have elected their entire municipal ticket by 2,500 plurality, a gain of 3,900. Returns from all over the state show a slight Republican gain.

Virginia.

RICHMOND, Nov. 4.—Of nineteen state senators the Democrats have certainly elected eleven. Of the one hundred members of the house the Democrats have elected seventy. The regular Democratic candidates are defeated in Matthews and Middlesex by the Alliance candidates.

Further returns point to a Democratic gain of two senators and six members of the house.

The Republicans elect a member of the house in Floyd county by 400 majority, a Republican loss of 200.

Scattering precinct returns indicate the election of Democrats to the house from Brunswick and Dinwiddie counties which were represented by Republicans in the last legislature.

In Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Feb. 4.—The contest in this state yesterday was for supreme court judge and for university regents. The election excites considerable interest as it is expected to show whether the Farmers' Alliance or Independent party is to gain the political supremacy in Nebraska.

Independent state committee claim Edgerton elected by 12,000. Republicans carry Omaha and Douglas county. Returns slow.

Three precincts in Lancaster county outside city of Lincoln give Post 329; Edgerton, 287. Thirteen precincts in the city of Lincoln give Post 1,847; Edgerton, 538.

Eighteen precincts in Omaha and South Omaha give Post 1,192; Edgerton, 783; Edgerton, 432.

Edgerton is rapidly losing ground, and it now looks as if an old-time Nebraska Republican majority will be rolled up.

In South Dakota.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 4.—The citizens of South Dakota went to the polls yesterday to elect a representative in the Fifty-second congress. The candidates were John L. Jolley, Republican; J. M. Wood, Democrat; and W. H. Smith, Prohibition.

CONGRESSIONAL ELECTIONS.

The Vacancies Filled at Yesterday's Elections.

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., Nov. 4.—Charles E. Bellnap was elected to congress yesterday to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Congressman M. H. Ford, of the Fifth district, by a plurality of 1,200 or 1,500 over John S. Lawrence, the Democratic candidate.

Congressional Election in Michigan.

DETROIT, Nov. 4.—One congressman was voted for in the Fifth district yesterday. The three candidates were C. E. Bellnap, Republican, who is the present congressman from the district; J. S. Lawrence, Democrat, and S. W. Richardson, Prohibition.

General Spino's Successor.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Bourke Cockran is elected to congress to fill the vacancy caused by General Spino's death.

Dropped Dead in a Court House.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 4.—Ex-Councilman Philip Wolf dropped dead while passing through the court house at a late hour yesterday afternoon. Death is supposed to have been caused by heart disease.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4, 1891.

THE Democrats did a good day's work yesterday, if they did lose Ohio.

If States will just keep their convicts inside the penitentiary walls according to the sentence against the criminals there will be no trouble like that in Tennessee.

THE greatest surprise in yesterday's elections is the result in Pennsylvania. Is the big Republican majority there an endorsement of Bardsley-McCamant methods in public office? It looks that way.

SOME Democrats want the earth. They are not satisfied with carrying New York, Massachusetts, Iowa, New Jersey, Virginia, &c., but are out of humor because the Republicans got Ohio and Pennsylvania.

JUDGING by the returns from Pennsylvania the Republicans of that State seem to think that "public office is a private snap," and that an officer ought to get all the money out of his position he can, whether by honest or dishonest means.

THE war on the tobacco growers' warehouse of Louisville is still on. The Exchange is trying to enforce its rule to prevent its members from buying at the exposition house. The Exchange would like to monopolize the leaf tobacco business of Louisville, but that day has passed.

THE Louisville Times seems to think that Kentucky Democratic Congressmen should support Hon. Benton McMillin for Speaker simply because he was "born in Turkey Neck Bend in Monroe County," and now lives "in a stone's toss of the Kentucky line." Kentucky Congressmen shouldn't allow State pride to interfere with their duty to the people and their party.

Tuesday's Elections.

The returns from Tuesday's elections in the various States are given elsewhere. The Democrats have no cause to grumble at the result. They carried New York, Maryland, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Virginia, and probably Iowa, while the Republicans re-capture Ohio and carry Pennsylvania.

All eyes were centered on the fight in New York, Massachusetts, Ohio and Iowa. The Democrats have two of these States, and probably three, and have reason to crow over the result.

The Weather for November.

The weather for November is thus foretold by Irl R. Hicks: "From 1st to 5th is the first storm period. North-westerly gales may be apprehended. Perishable products should be guarded against early freezing. Crisp, bright days will follow, until cloudiness and rains, with gales and snow to the north, appear about the 9th and 10th. About the 15th, 16th and 17th expect some hard, autumnal storms and changes. The period runs from 14th to 17th, central on the 15th. Watch it. Cold following, will moderate for lighter disturbances on and near the 21st, after which there will be a prompt and sharp return to cold. Storms from 25th to 29th will bring a stiff blast of winter and send the days and nights freezing into December."

Building Associations and Their Future.

The Henderson Gleaner says: "Representatives of the four home building and loan associations in this city met at the council chamber the other evening for purpose of considering the advisability of calling or causing to be called a meeting of the representatives of the associations throughout the State. The object of the meeting will be to draft a petition to the next General Assembly asking that a general law be enacted which will embrace a section preventing the plea of usury on the part of their patrons; also to act upon the question of taxation of associations from other States doing business in this State. A committee of four were appointed to draft a circular letter to each of the associations in the State as to their opinion on such laws and as to the time and place of holding a State meeting."

PARALYZED BY TOBACCO.

A Telegraph Operator Loses His Sight and Speech.

[San Francisco Examiner, Oakland Special.]

B. F. Cummings, a train dispatcher at the Oakland mole, was sitting at his desk in the office on Wednesday last, when, without a particle of warning of any kind, he became totally blind.

It was about seven o'clock in the evening and he had to be helped to his home, for he was utterly helpless. The blindness lasted for several hours, and then his sight returned, but just as he began to see once more his voice departed and he was unable to make even a sound.

The case was a very peculiar one and offered so many strange symptoms that it has attracted no little attention from the medical fraternity at Oakland. Dr. Woolsey was called to attend the case and explains it as "tobacco paralysis."

"It is very rare," said Dr. Woolsey, "and comes from the overuse of tobacco. Cummings was a telegraph operator and was constantly at his desk. Smoking on duty is prohibited, and he began chewing. He chewed incessantly, and from the time he got up until he went to bed the only times when he was without a quid of tobacco in his mouth was when he was at meals. This constant use of tobacco gradually led to the paralysis which was manifested in such a peculiar manner. The first shock was to the optic nerve, and as soon as that wore off the paralysis attacked the muscles of the throat. These extreme cases are rare, and very few of them are reported in the literature of the profession. The only other case that ever came under my observation was that of a man from Reno. His case was worse, in some respects, though not as peculiar as that of Cummings. His name was Baker, and he suffered from absolute paralysis. You could stick pins in him anywhere, and they produced no sensation whatever. He could scarcely walk or stand, and nearly all of his faculties were impaired to a greater or less degree. His case was caused by swallowing tobacco juice and thus getting the full effect of the nicotine."

Cummings recovered the use of his voice to a slight degree on Friday, and has been improving since.

THE NEWS IN WASHINGTON.

The President and Some of His Cabinet Interviewed on the Election.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—President Harrison spent the evening at the executive mansion receiving the election returns. With him were Attorney General Miller and Secretary Rusk. Secretary Tracy dropped in on the party for a few minutes on his way to his residence from the railway station, where he arrived from New York. Two wires brought Western Union bulletins direct to the telegraph room of the White House, and these with the United Press dispatches brought by messengers from his office here, were laid before the president and the two members of his official family as soon as received. Many private messages were also brought in.

Secretary Blaine, at his big house near the executive mansion, was furnished with election news by the telegraph companies and press associations. Secretary Noble did not seem to share in the natural excitement to learn the way things were going for he went to the theater. The other members of the cabinet were out of town—Secretary Foster in Ohio, Secretary Proctor in New York, and Postmaster General Wanamaker in Philadelphia. The excitement in Washington over the elections was confined largely to department clerks and members of political clubs.

Taylor Versus Arnold.

Judge Lewis of the Court of Appeals in affirming the above case taken up from Bracken County says:

First—In this action to recover a small parcel of land, which defendant is alleged to have forcibly entered upon and taken possession of, the plaintiff having alleged and proved that he and those under whom he claims had been in continuous, adverse possession of the tract described, by deeds exhibited, and which he contends includes the parcel in dispute, for more than fifteen years before commencement of the action, it was not necessary for him to trace his title to the Commonwealth.

Second—As the simple issue is whether the division line between the two tracts of the parties is where the plaintiff contends it is or where the defendant claims it to be, the verdict for plaintiff not being flagrantly against the evidence will not be disturbed.

Third—As the father of defendant at one time jointly with his wife owned and occupied the tract of which defendant is now owner, it was competent for plaintiff to prove that while thus owning and in possession of that tract, defendant's father stated the division line between it and plaintiff's land was where the latter claims and the jury found it to be.

There will be protracted meeting at the Christian Church beginning to-day. The pastor will be assisted by Elder South, of Frankfort.

Your esteemed correspondent either misunderstood our friend Hall, or else the learned Doctor has switched off on a sidetrack, when he invited the people of Sardis to come and hear "the new gospel." We advise them to read the 18th and 19th verse of the last chapter of Revelations. There is nothing better than the "old, old story."

The glass men for the windows of the new church are now one month behind with their contract. It's very important that they should be here before a rain to protect the inside work. Come on, gentlemen.

J. A. Jackson has a good many old accounts and notes outstanding and he wishes it distinctly understood that if they are not settled or some satisfactory arrangement made in the next thirty days they will be placed in the hands of an officer for settlement. He is doing business for money and not for glory.

Commendable.

All claims not consistent with the high character of Syrup of Figs are purposely avoided by the Cal. Fig Syrup Company. It acts gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels, cleansing the system effectually, but it is not a cure-all and makes no pretensions that every bottle will not substantiate.

A Narrow Escape.

The Bourbon News says: "Mrs. Amos Turney and her three-year-old daughter had quite a narrow escape from being hurled to death Monday morning, while on their way home from this city. They were passing the Bourbon House, when a bundle fell out of their buggy, and in some manner got entangled in the wheel, which scared their horse so that he began to run. Dashing down the Main street hill, the runaway horse ran into and broke several vehicles, and then ran into a tree near the railroad bridge, and then down the steep hill to the left of the jail, into the creek, where Mrs. Turney stopped him. Mrs. Turney showed great courage and presence of mind in holding on to the lines and not attempting to jump out with her daughter, as most ladies would have done. As it was, though, she had a narrow escape, but received no injuries, other than having her mouth cut and two teeth broken, by coming in contact with one of the vehicles with which the frightened horse collided."

Mrs. Turney is a sister of 'Squire Leslie Mannen, of Germantown. Her relatives and friends in Mason will be glad to learn of her fortunate escape.

JOHN H. TAYLOR, of Concord, and Miss Mary E. Harry, of Covadale, were married yesterday at the Grand View Hotel.

NEWS FROM LEWIS.

The Bulletin's Weekly Budget of Items from Vanceburg.

Correspondence of BULLETIN.

VANCEBURG, KY., Nov. 3, '91.

G. T. and T. C. Wilson and Thomas M. Fry were here Tuesday.

Frank McCaskey, of New Brighton, Penn., is still sojourning here.

The Knights of Pythias will give an elaborate banquet Thanksgiving.

Lon Davis, of Quick's Run, was burned out last week, and was without any insurance.

Paris C. Brown, of Cincinnati, has been visiting relatives in this county—his former home.

Bud Flinders, while hunting, shot at a rabbit and killed a fine calf belonging to a Mr. Hines.

Dr. A. B. Elliott is still confined to his room. He is thinking of going to Florida to spend the winter.

Burns Chapter is still booming. Three new converts were initiated into the order Saturday night last.

W. C. Halbert killed twenty quails yesterday in about two hours. He now holds the record this season so far.

William Greenhow, of Quick's Run, had the misfortune to have his house burned Sunday night. No insurance.

The Silver Wave and the Reliance are the only boats passing this place now, the river being too low for larger boats to run.

Col. Tannian and Soc. Biven, while driving yesterday, upset their buggy and received numerous bruises, but not of a serious nature.

The politicians here are much muddled over the elections to-day in other States. There is no betting at all and all are looking for surprises.

The new city ordinance has had a wholesome effect and we have a very orderly city now. The city officers say that business is distressingly dull.

The C. and O. and other lines of railroad along the Ohio river are enjoying a healthy trade in freight while the river continues too low for navigation.

The house of Thomas Bate on Kinney burned Sunday. It is believed to have originated from a spark falling on the roof. Insured in the Agricultural of Watertown, N. Y.

Socials, hops, &c., are not so frequent here as they have been in times gone by. The blame doubtless rests on the young ladies, as the boys are ever-willing participants.

Mr. Smallwood, the former genial night operator for the C. and O. Railway at this place, is now in Texas, having left for that State on Sunday morning last. He will accept a position there.

A Gypsy camp has been located in the suburbs of this place for several days. Their exchequers are being replenished at a marvelous rate, as a large number of our citizens are becoming acquainted with what the hitherto mysterious future had in store for them. According to reports of those who have had a prognostication of the future made, the next Christmas will be the most pleasant they have yet spent. We trust that this may be true, although we have some doubts about it.

Dan McGinty and His Troubles.

"McGinty's Troubles," as might be expected from its name, is one of those nonsensical productions now so popular which contain just enough trace of plot to hold together a sparkling succession of songs, interspersed with goodly quantities of 'specialties.' The skit is a fine example of its kind. The songs are catchy and cleverly introduced. The play made a decided hit yesterday, and was witnessed by crowded houses at both performances.—Moline (Illinois) Globe, April 15, 1891.

At opera house to-morrow night.

"Who first comes to this world below, with drear November's fog and snow, should prize the topaz's amber hue, emblem of friends and lovers true." Call and see those lovely birthday rings Balenger, the jeweler, is selling.

CHICKEN thieves are bad in Bourbon. A few nights ago, they visited Colonel R. G. Stoner's yards and poisoned a valuable setter dog for which he had refused $50, and also stole most of his poultry. If a few more of them are treated like 'Squire Royster treated that one in Fayette, it will put a stop to the business.

CAPTAIN JAMES EWING and Captain W. C. Allen, aged respectively 81 and 76 and respectively Captain and Lieutenant of the same company of soldiers in the war with Mexico, died at about the same hour Sunday night, the former at his home four miles south of Owingsville, and the latter at his residence in that place.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The New York Herald has startled its companions of the press by the announcement of a free discussion of the question of the times—"The Silver question." Their columns are open. ## THE OHIO RETURNS.

Result of the Quadruple Contest.

A REPUBLICAN VICTORY.

The Returns Not All in, but McKinley Probably Elected by 15,000 Plurality. The People's Party Poll a Very Light Vote—Senator Sherman Interviewed.

WILLIAM MCKINLEY.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—There were four complete state tickets in the field yesterday, and one of the hottest fights the Buckeye state has known has been settled at the polls. James E. Campbell, the present governor, was the Democratic candidate; William McKinley, Jr., was the Republican candidate; John Seitz was the People's candidate, and John Ashenbush was the Prohibition. For lieutenant governor the principal candidates were Andrew L. Harris, Republican, and W. V. Marquis, Democrat; for auditor, Ebenezer W. Poe, Republican, and T. E. Peckinpaugh, Democrat; for treasurer, William J. Cope, Republican, and C. F. Ackerman, Democrat; for attorney general, John K. Richards, Republican, and John P. Bailey, Democrat. Additional importance is lent to this election from the fact that the legislature on joint ballot will elect a United States senator to succeed John Sherman, whose term expires.

Returns from Ohio will be compared with the vote on secretary of state in 1890, when Ryan, Republican, had a plurality of 10,969. There have been a large number of additional precincts formed since 1890, but the subdivisions will be added together and compared with the old precinct as it existed in 1890. There were 2,493 precincts in Ohio in 1890. There are now 2,677 precincts in the state.

Six hundred and forty-five precincts outside of Cincinnati give McKinley 101,997; Campbell, 89,450; Ashenbush, 4,387; Seitz, 2,338. The same in 1890 gave Ryan, 94,714; Cronley, 86,809; Lockwood, 5,548; Curtis, 178.

The chairman of the Republican state committee claims the state by from 19,000 to 21,000. The general assembly from 31 to 38 on joint ballot. Republicans have carried all the close counties for legislature.

Five hundred and seventy precincts outside of Cincinnati give McKinley 89,429; Campbell, 76,657. The same districts in 1890 gave Ryan, Republican, 82,887, and Cronley, Democrat, 73,558.

Cuyahoga County.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 3.—Thirty-seven out of 117 precincts in Cuyahoga county give Campbell, 4,734; McKinley, 4,172. These are mostly Democratic precincts. Niles, McKinley's birthplace, gives the Republican ticket a gain of 200.

Eight precincts in Hardin county, ordinarily Democratic, show a Republican gain of 189, with probabilities that the Republicans will carry the county by 200. This is where the joint debate was held. Indications at present are that McKinley has cut down the Democratic plurality in Montgomery county from 1,100 to 500.

Dennison goes Republican by 21, a gain of 68. It is the second time that town has given a Republican plurality. Lake county complete gives McKinley 1,778, a Republican gain of 880.

Republicans Gain Two Representatives. FINDLAY, O., Nov. 4.—Hancock county Republican ticket is elected. Conley, Republican, is elected to the legislature without a doubt. Paulding county also elects the Republican representative. This is a gain of two representatives.

Large Vote at Alliance.

ALLIANCE, O., Nov. 4.—Yesterday's vote was the largest ever polled in this city. McKinley has run ahead of the rest of the state ticket and will carry this city by 600 plurality.

Kenton Complete.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—The city of Kenton complete gives McKinley 865, Campbell 753, being a net Republican gain of 27.

Chairman Neal Gives It Up.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—In an interview last night Chairman Neal said: "Everything is lost. McKinley will carry the state by at least 15,000, anything above that you can use your own figures for we are snowed under."

"How about the legislature," was asked.

"Well, they take that too, but I cannot tell by what majority."

This is the first news given out at Democratic headquarters, but it has been noticed that no high degree of animation has been felt there all evening; since the first returns were received.

Hilarity reigns supreme in all Republican houses.

GOVERNOR CAMPBELL SEEN.

He Admits That McKinley Has Carried the State.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 4.—Governor Campbell virtually concedes the election of McKinley, though not in so many words. The United Press called upon Governor Campbell at his office at midnight and found him in anything but a cheerful mood, surrounded by members of his family and intimate friends. Said he, upon being asked for an interview:

"I have nothing to say." But being questioned further he continued: "The situation I will admit looks like anything but favorable for me. All private advices until now have been very flattering, but not consistent with the return by Western Union wire. I don't know where these election returns come from, but if they are true, it looks as if I am defeated."

The United Press bore him the first intelligence that the Democratic committee had given up all hopes. While there was a noticeable change in his countenance, it was plainly evident that he had been momentarily expecting such news.

"This," said Governor Campbell, pointing to the latest bulletin, "is what seems so discouraging to me." The report was that from 236 precincts outside of Cincinnati. In those McKinley received 30,182 and Campbell 25,139, a net Republican gain of 663. The fact that Hamilton county will go hopelessly Republican gives Governor Campbell but little to build upon. McKinley's plurality may reach 20,000 or even higher.

The latest concession at Democratic headquarters is 20,000 plurality for McKinley. They have received no information on the legislative ticket, but are ready to admit their hopes in that direction are decidedly dampened.

SENATOR SHERMAN INTERVIEWED.

He Claims a Glorious Victory for Major McKinley.

MANSFIELD, O., Nov. 4.—In an interview with Senator Sherman last night by a United Press reporter on the result of the election in Ohio, the senator said: "It is a glorious victory. I have cause to believe that McKinley has been elected by over 15,000 plurality and that the legislature is safely Republican. The result, whatever it may be, will have an important influence upon canvasses and elections. The two issues—free coinage and a protective tariff—were never before presented so distinctly to the people of a state as they have been to the people of Ohio. As to the tariff, the issue was fairly made and met. As to the free coinage of silver, it was clearly made an issue by the Democratic convention, but Campbell and nearly all the Democratic speakers shrunk from it. The new ballot system has been tried with many misgivings in both parties, but the experiment was successful, and I believe has come to stay."

Where Governor Campbell Voted.

HAMILTON, O., Nov. 4.—Governor Campbell came here from Cincinnati early yesterday and voted, this being his legal residence. He voted a straight Democratic ticket, including himself. He always votes for himself when running for an office, experience having taught him the value of a single vote. Aside from his election as governor, his total majorities in half a dozen contests did not aggregate 500. He once went to congress by a majority of 2.

McKinley at Home.

CANTON, O., Nov. 4.—Yesterday was a quiet day for Major McKinley for the first time in ten weeks. At 9 o'clock he deposited his ballot and at noon he dined with friends. The afternoon he passed in his rooms in the Hurford and at night he visited the Tabernacle to hear the result of the day's ballot, where he remained until the verdict of the people had been heard.

MORE BRITISH WIND.

Another Sensational Report That Comes Via Great Britain.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—A private dispatch received from Valparaiso says that the American cruiser Baltimore is in serious danger, and that there is reason to believe that the Chileans, believing war inevitable, will not allow the United States to select their own time declare war, but will suddenly give Egan his passports and at once attack the Baltimore so as to have the first blow at an advantage.

It is not believed among the foreign residents of Valparaiso that the other men-of-war in Valparaiso harbor would permit a treacherous attack on Captain Schley, but would demand that he be given fair notice to quit Valparaiso. Captain Schley, however, is keeping a vigilant outlook, and means to take no chance. Those who know him say that he would not surrender under any circumstances.

The Troy press continues to pour the vials of its wrath upon the United States in connection with Chili, the articles being apparently intended rather for consumption in Chili than England or America, and being well calculated to puff the country with a great idea of Chili's capacity for defeating the Americans.

QUIET AT THE MINES.

No More Trouble Likely in Tennessee Coal Fields.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Everything throughout the mining section is rather quiet. Business is at a standstill in many places as a result of the convicts' release and the destruction of property.

Thus far about fifty of the 500 convicts released have been captured. Most of them have been placed in the jail here and all will go to Nashville.

An additional supply of guards has been taken to Tracy City, and the mines there are now fortified against attack. Labor Commissioner Ford stated that it is not his opinion that any attack will be made to release the 620 convicts at Inman and Tracy City, as the miners there were not so independently situated as they had been in this section.

There is a general feeling prevalent here that the leaders in the release of the convicts during the past four days will be arrested and punished.

A Robber Found Guilty of Murder.

YORK, Pa., Nov. 4.—Monday William Henry Painton, charged with the killing of Mrs. Michael Strominger, was found guilty of murder in the first degree. Painton with two other men now under indictment, broke into the house of Michael Strominger, an old farmer living near here, and bound and gagged Strominger and his wife while they rifled the premises. When neighbors discovered the old couple, Mrs. Strominger was dead, the gag in her mouth having strangled her.
